FOR RICHMOND'S SCHOOLS.

Art Club Has Formed a Collection of Pictures to Be Divided Among Them. The schools of Richmond have a valuable treat in store for them, thanks to the Richmond Art Club. A collection of valuable pictures, forty or fifty in number, and measuring about two by three for the large back before setting together.

They cover a wide field of filustration, but are alike in excellence and care of selection. There are carefully-made photographic copies of some of the world's great masterpleces of painting, and photographs of notable statues. The field of art in architecture is represented by the notable cathedrals and buildings of the world. Among the world wonders the children will find a faithful and correct picture of the Sphinx that will give them a clearer idea than the pictures of many geographies. Especially appropriate are a series of splended pictures of the stately homes of old Virginia—Shirley, Brandon, Westover and others.

MEETINGS IN FULTON.

Final Rallies of Two Clubs Held Last Night.

Night.

The campaign, so far as the Rocketts and the Union Futton Democratic Clubs were concerned, wound up last night with rousing meetings.

Both clubs were addressed by all the candidates for-Council and candidates for the general offices or representatives of such candidates, with the exception of those for the mayoralty and Sheriff Hughes. The speeches were all short and to the point, and in each instance were well received, so that it would be a difficult thing for any one to pick the winners. The same men applauded all the speakers.

ners. The same men applauded all the speakers.

The meeting of the Union Club was a particularly happy one. Besides the candidates, Messrs. Sam Stern spoke for Mayor Taylor and Alderman Bahen spoke for the present members of the Council from Marshall Ward. He referred particularly to the good work that Messrs. Mostly and Washer had done in the Council for the ward, and hoped they would be returned.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE TRUSTEES

They Meet and Discuss Themes of Great Moment to Institution.

Great Moment to Institution.

The Board of Trustees of the Womân's College met yesterday afternoon, with President Hatcher in the chair. The session was not a very lengthy one. The themes under discussion were the enlargement of the college so that students will not have to be turned away, as this year, and the relation of the college to the Bandist co-ordination scheme. These were discussed at some length, but action was deferred.

The lease Dr. Nelson has on the college property expires at the close of this session, but there is no doubt that he will have the school as long as he wishes it.

DOG POUND COMPLETED.

It Will Be Put Into Operation Within Another Month.

The dog pound is completed. The Police Committee of the Council will meet on the 14th to award a contract for a wagon. the 14th to award a contract for a wagon. This is to contain a large woven wire box for dogs, measuring nine by four feet by three feet high. It is hoped that the wagon can be built and the dog pound put in operation within another month. The committee is somewhat embarrassed by the smallness of the appropriation awarded it in the budget. It asked for $2.500 for the construction of a dog pound, wagon, etc., and for $3.200 for operating expenses for a year. The Council gave it $3,500 for construction and operating expenses. The dog pound, now completed, will take over $1,700 of this amount, and the wagon something more.

The committee fears that, unless an additional appropriation is given to it, it will be unable to operate the dog pound during the whole year on the present appropriation. propriation.

General Smith's Order Was to Kill and Burn, Making a Howling Wilderness.

(By Associated Press.) MANILA, April S .- Major Littleton T. Waller, of the marine corps, at to-day's session of the court martial by which he is being tried on the charge of executing natives of Samar without trial, testified in rebuttal of the evidence given yesterday by General Jacob H. Smith, who commanded the American transfer. commanded the American troops in the island of Samar. The Major said General smith instructed him to bill and burn; said that the more he killed and burned the better pleased he would be; that it was no time to take prisoners, and that was to make Samar a howling wilderness.

Major Waller asked General Smith to define the age limit for killing, and he replied, "Everything over ten." 'The Major repeated this order to Cuntain Porter, saying: "We do not make war in that way on old men, women and children".

Captain David D. Porter, Captain Hiram I. Bearss and Lieutenant Frank Hal-ford, all of the marine corps, testified corroboratively.

corroboratively.

The defense requested that a subpoena be served on the adjutant general, demanding the production of the records of the massacre at Belangiga of the detachment of the Ninth Infantry, in order to refute the statement of General Smith to the effect that the attack on the troops was made according to the laws of war. The request was granted.

Broken Into-Approaching Marriage-Items from the Southside.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, 1 No. 1102 Hull Street. The meeting of the Business Men's Association held last night in the Leader building was characterized by speeches by several members who wanted to see the city made more beautiful, the streets better and the general appearance such as to invite capital and manufacturers. This was the gist of the meeting. Mr. D. L. Pulliam called the meeting to order with a good attendance of members. The question of the proposed bridge across James River, on or near the site of Mayo's Bridge, took up much of the time. The Association suggested, and asked the members of the press to make notice of the fact, that the sidewalk between the Richmond end of Mayo's Bridge and Cary Street was in such condition that a per-Street was in such condition that a per son not familiar with the street would be liable to scrious injury at night. In the advertising of Manchester those present took a good deal of interest. There was a resolution adopted asking all merchants who do much correspondence to was a resolution adopted asking all mer-chants who do much correspondence to have the name of the city printed on the back of the envelopes, and, if possible, some of the inducements offered to man-ufacturers. On motion of Mr. Dunford, a committee, consisting of Mr. Dunford, Dr. Mathews, A. G. Gallagher. Stanley Hall and Dr. Hill, was appointed to make some provisions for beautifying the city. Mr. Dunford made a good talk on this subject, saying the city needed as much subject, saying the city needed as much pulling down as it did building. He had reference to the old buildings on Hull Street, which, he said, were a menace to the prosperity and growth of any city. Dr. Mathews brought to the attention of the association the fact that an af-ternoon paper, which had a representative in Manchester, got out its first edition without any Manchester news. Speaking of the advertising of the city, he thought this a very bad way to do so. The mat-ter was referred to the Executive Com-mittee to see the managers of the paper.

THIEVES WORKING OVERTIME. The home of Mr. J. W. Brooks, No. 5 West Twentieth Street, was visited by thieves Monday night and the rear blinds taken off. The glass in the window was broken out and this awakened the inmates. The burglars made their escape. The police were notified of the attempt yesterday morning, and are now at work on the case. This is the third time within the week the police have been notified of either attempts or rob-berles. When the thieves get to work ver here the people at once ask for more police, and this cry is getting so universal that it is thought the city fathers will have to yield to it, and order at least several more ment to go on. ## VIRGINIA NEWS TOMAKETHECITY DID NOT KNOW SHE HAD KIDNEY TROUBLE.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Gertrude Warner Scott Cured by the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root.

DR. KILMER & CO., Binghamton, N. GENTLEMEN:-In the summer of 1893 I was taken violently ill. My trouble began with pain in my stomach and back, so severe that it seemed as if knives were cutting me. I was reated by two of the best physicians in the county and consulted another. NONE OF THEM SUSPECTED THAT THE CAUSE OF MY TROUBLE WAS KIDNEY DISEASE. They all told me that I had cancer of the stomach and would die. I grew so weak that I could not walk any more than a child a month old, and I only weighed sixty pounds. One day my brother saw in a paper your advertisement of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. He bought me a bottle at our drug store and I took it. My family could see a change in me, for the better, so they obtained more, and I continued the use of Swamp-Root regularly. I was so weak and run down that it took considerable time to build me up again. I am now well, thanks to Swamp-Root, and weigh 148 pounds, and am keeping house for my husband and brother on a farm. Swamp-Root cured me after the doctors had failed to do me a particle of good.

Gedrude Warner Scott (Gertrude Warner Scott.)

Women suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles.

The mild and extraordinary effect of the world-famous kidney and bladder remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. A trial will convince anyone—and you may have a sample bottle sent

LOOK LIKE GIRLS IN MASK AND WIG

University of Pennsylvania Bexs Gave a Fine Presentation of Old King Cole.

A glittering galaxy of girls, far more beautiful than the real article seen in the merry-merry of end comic opera of the day, or, to be more exact, the night, created no end of jollity and merriment at the Academy last night. "Old King Cole," an extravaganza in two acts, written by William Ernst, Jr., was the offering, and the Mask and Wig Club of the University of Pennsylvania ought to be more than willing to plead guilty of being the perpetrators. It should be said first that few better entertainments have been seen in Richmond this season, and a professional company could not have better pleased the large, brilliant and representative audience that filled the Academy to overflowing.

The chorus was a constant source of wonder to the feminine contingent. The wasp-like waists, the mincing steps, the roguish glances and the saucy winks of those college boys caused many a ripple of laughter, and the fair sex in the audience could not understand how they were counterfeited so truly. It is true those deep bass voices dispelled the illusion, for you scarce expected such gruff notes to issue from billowy bodices of satin and lace, and a sweet, soft soprano would have been more in cosequence with those rosy checks and captivating lips. But, of course, that was where the funcame in.

came in.

The other feature was the disclosure of an actor whose work would compare favorably with many professionals. Sylvester James Deenan, who appeared as Mr. R. L.-Z. Bub, is the most talented amateur that has appeared in Richmond' in many a day. His work was clear-cut and convincing throughout, and in the travesmany a day. His work was clear-cut and convincing throughout, and in the travesty on "If I Were King," he covered himself with glory. So excellent was his acting in his burlesquing of E. H. Sothern, that several members of the Giffen Company, who occupied a box, were strenuously enthusiastic in their applause. His German dialect was especially good, and he sung his several numbers with artistic finish. The next best work was done by Lemuel Howell Davis as Miss Ann hrope. Warren Frederic Martin as done by Lemuel Howell Davis as Ann hrope. Warren Frederic Martin as Pandora, and William Otto Miller as Per-cy Verance, were very good. Arthur Ed-ward Healy was a very satisfactory King Pandora, and Whinam Otto Mater tas year can very verance, were very good. Arthur Edward Healy was a very satisfactory King Cole. The musical numbers, selected from "Florodora." "The Strollers," "The Torreador," "Miss Simplicity," and other late operatic successes, were very pleasing. Charles Gilpin also contributed some really excellent original numbers. His "Serenade Lullaby" and sextette were especially well received.

The most popular musical selections were "A Leeson in Flirtation" and "Honey, Ma Sweet." The dancing of a portion of the chorus in the "coon" song was the best of the evening. The "Strolling in Society" song from the New Yorkers was also a very attractive number.

ers was also a very attractive number.
It would take several columns to tell of all the good things. The costuming was very attractive and picturesque, and the cenery was very handsome. The scenery was very handsome. The boat race by moonlight was an original idea well executed. The audience was as notable as the play, and society was out in full force. The managers of the Virginia Hospital are to be congratulated on the success of the evening, and it will be gratifying to the friends of the hospital to learn that, notwithstanding the heavy expense undergone, over $100 was cleared. expense undergone, over $400 was cleare over and above all expenditures.

It is to be hoped that the Mask and Wig Club will be an annual visitor to Richmond.
